

Enhance Your Fantasies With Dragon Tooth

Our personality sets contain fantasy role playing characters with more action, more drama, more sculptural quality, and, of course, more character than any other figures available.

Our sets are packaged as kits containing separate swords, axes, shields, daggers, bows, capes, and heads; which will allow you to construct your character as he should be, and allows you to add subtleties unavailable with other figures. The sets contain the character on foot and mounted on a horse.
