

It takes more than metal to make a fantasy miniature.

It takes a lot of imagination, fine sculpting, craftsmanship, and experience to create a quality product that you will want in your adventures.

It takes a company big enough to cast the hundreds of different characters to keep your role-playing adventures interesting and challenging.

It takes just a few minutes to visit your game or hobby store for the only official 25mm ADVANCED DUNGEONS & DRAGONS™ fantasy miniatures available.
